

Dear Parents,

I trust you have had a good week! The children have been very busy and I've been lucky enough to visit many of the classes recently, including with our School Improvement Partner, Michael Youlton. He was very impressed with the learning atmosphere across the school, in particular how confident and able our children were when talking about their learning. He even quoted some 'Milford Mindset' he heard the children actively using, including 'Marvellous Mistakes'! Our value this half term is courage, and the children have been sharing excellent examples of how they can show courage (e.g. marvellous mistakes). Our library project has been progressing well with the flat packed furniture arriving today to be assembled over the next couple of weeks. The Milford Friends have organised a working party and I can't wait to share photos soon! Finally, a massive thank you must go to our parent helpers and wonderful librarian, Mrs Lees who have given up so much time and effort organising and sorting our books, scanning and labelling them onto our library system, ready for when we are able to officially celebrate its opening. Year 2 have started rehearsals for their leavers production video too and the singing sounds brilliant already.

Have a good weekend.

From all of Milford School

Reception News

We have kicked off to a great start with our new topic 'Food, Glorious Food!' this term. We have read, acted out and learnt a 'Talk for Writing' version of the marvellous story 'Handa's Surprise'. We have done some fantastic writing from this and even did some fruit tasting of all of the different fruits mentioned in the story including: banana, orange, pineapple, mango, avocado, passion fruit and even the elusive quava!

We've been getting ready for Year One and coming in to school to some writing and Maths challenges.

We are so awesome that we have even taken over some of the teaching and home-time story reading too! 😊

We have also demonstrated some incredible teamwork...

Building 'a dinosaur enclosure and a special area to protect their eggs'

Preparing food for customers in the café and selling fresh fruit, vegetables and other food in the village shop.

We have created some fantastic artwork...

We have been learning about doubling, sharing and using what we know to solve problems in Maths too...
